Welcome to one of the most exciting educational places in the world. As you browse through this catalog, you will find courses, programs and services that will touch your curiosity and guide you to knowledge and skills you did not realize existed. There are courses that lead to degrees and certificates. There are special programs that can change your career path or enhance your present employment.

You are not too young or too old. To students directly out of high school, you will find activities that will give you a start for transfer to a four-year college. You will be pleasantly surprised to meet caring and demanding faculty of high quality who will prepare you for knowledge levels expected at any institution of higher education.

If you are interested in immediate employment, the programs and certificates cover the careers of the present and future, with a level of knowledge that will provide you with unlimited opportunities.

Special interest courses designed to fulfill the business and industry needs of the region are available and can be customized to give employers and employees all they need to succeed.

An array of counseling, health, and financial aid services are available as well as cultural events and college clubs whose activities may be open to the entire community.

This catalog is your key to the opportunity of a lifetime. Become a part of it by calling or visiting the College today and thank you for choosing us.

Sincerely,
